The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1, 4-24 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nielson (USP 6,405,243) in view of Reilly (6,427,164).

See at least Figures 1-5 and the description thereof in Nielsen. Nielsen teaches in Figure 5 (column 7 lines 6-25) a method for processing sending information in a sending device (101, Figure 1), comprising:

Receiving an entry (recipient's old email address) input by a user into the sending device, the entry comprising sending information that identifies a destination to which information is to be sent by the sending device;

Cross-referencing (see Figure 5) the user-entered sending information with a contacts database that contains recipient sending information of the user to determine if the user-entered information matches sending information saved in the contacts database; and Automatically catching the user-entered sending information in the contacts database if the user-entered sending information has not been previously saved.

Although Nielsen refers to the address book as the sender's address book in lines 10-14 of column 7, Nielsen does not explicitly state that the sender address book is stored in the sender's sending device. Reilly teaches a sender's address book which is stored in a sending device 110 (see lines 54-58 of column 9 in Reilly). From the teaching of Reilly, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to store a sender's address book in a sending device such that the address book can be used by the sending machine.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
